The Honorable John Conyers, Jr.
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Conyers:

Our Nation commemorates its black heritage during the month of February. The Central Intelligence Agency welcomes the opportunity to increase awareness of the varied contributions of Black Americans and to foster greater understanding and support for minority concerns.

I am honored to learn that you have accepted an invitation to speak at our Headquarters Auditorium on 2 February 1984 in observance of Black History Month. Your accomplishments truly attest to the 1984 Theme: "Black Americans Striving for Excellence in Education."

John N. McMahon and I deeply regret that, because of previous commitments, we cannot welcome you personally. However, you will receive a warm reception from the Agency's Deputy Director for Administration, Harry E. Fitzwater, and the Director of Equal Employment Opportunity, [redacted]

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
